

PATHWAYS TO WORKING IN THE HUMANITARIAN SECTOR

AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE FOR BUILT ENVIRONMENT PROFESSIONALS

architectswithoutfrontiers australia

Ever wondered if you could design a refugee camp for 10,000 people? Or how to apply your skills to the Humanitarian Sector?

WHAT ARE THE AIMS OF THE COURSE?

This training course introduces built environment professionals to the Humanitarian sector and identifies pathways for future work experience in development and post-disaster scenarios.

WHO IS THIS COURSE AIMED AT?

This course is aimed at mid-career design and construction professionals.

LOCATION & DATE

Melbourne - 18th & 19th October 2014

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

AWF and our partners are committed to assisting built environment professionals gain skills and capabilities in the Humanitarian Sector. This course offers CPD points with the Australian Institute of Architects Refuel program.

COST: $1000

TO BOOK SIMPLY EMAIL TRAINING@ARCHITECTSWITHOUTFRONTIERS.COM.AU

PRESENTED WITH THE INPUT AND PARTICIPATION OF:

ARUP

Refuel
CPD provider network

World Vision

Habitat for Humanity Australia

engineers without borders
australia

Red
R AUSTRALIA

the power of humanity

ARCHITECTSWITHOUTFRONTIERS.COM.AU